

English connects

Be part of the world's largest online English teaching community.

Enhance your teaching and your career

TeachingEnglish is the British Council's digital programme accessible to all teachers and teacher educators of English worldwide, providing professional development opportunities, resources, peer support and networking for a global community of English language teaching practitioners. With over 6.6 million unique website users each year from over 200 countries and territories, and over four million followers on social media, TeachingEnglish offers thousands of free resources to support English teachers in their lessons and with their professional development.

Community

Join thousands of other teachers in our community to share tips and anecdotes, watch informative videos and webinars, participate in live panels and Q&As, learn from other community members, and save useful teaching resources.

Join our community via British Council TeachingEnglish on Facebook, Instagram, YouTube and X.

Teaching resources

Check out our library of resources for your primary and secondary classes.

Webinars and events

Enjoy our live monthly online events on current ELT themes and our programme of monthly webinars for teacher educators. Download handouts with more ideas for your classes, or dip into our extensive bank of recorded teacher development sessions.

Training courses

Boost your skills and explore new ways of teaching by taking our free online training courses.

Core online modules feature a blend of theory, practical teaching suggestions and case studies. Critical reflection tasks help you adapt the contents of the modules for your teaching context.

Publications

Stay up to date with the latest research and innovations through our library of articles, case studies, and ELT master's dissertations.

Continuing professional development

With our continuing professional development frameworks, you can reflect on your teaching and work out exactly what you need.

