

Study UK Alumni Awards

Confidentiality and Use of Data

In line with EU GDPR law, all application data has been treated as confidential throughout the judging and shortlisting process by everyone involved.

Conflict of interest

All applications are anonymised for the judging process and judges take conflict of interest very seriously to ensure the integrity of the process, including signing relevant agreements. If judges recognise an applicant, they are required to state any conflict of interest immediately. Any judge disclosing a conflict of interest is excluded from assessing the specific application and scores are provided by other members of the judging panel only.

Jury panel

Alexandros Charkiolakis studied music at the University of Sheffield where he graduated with a BMus(Hons) in 2002 and an MMus by Research in musicology and orchestral conducting in 2004. He also holds an MSc in Philosophy and Management from the University of Athens. He was Head of the “Erol Üçer” Music Library and a Lecturer of Historical Musicology at the Istanbul Technical University. Then, he was appointed General Director of the Friends of Music Society in Athens. He is currently a member of the Board of the State Orchestra of Athens and the Mikis Theodorakis Museum in Zatouna. He is serving as the Alumni UK Regional Ambassador for the EU.

Dr. Orna Rosenfeld, B.Arch. (Hons), M.A., Ph.D., is a globally recognized advisor on housing, living, and inclusion, as well as an award-winning research scientist, author, and speaker. Her expertise spans 56 countries, where she advises governments, select cities, and leaders of international organizations. In 2021, she was named the Global Social Impact Winner by the British Council UK, having first received the British Council’s UK Study Alumni Award for Europe.

Study UK Alumni Awards

Anne Roy is a French journalist at AEF info. She is interested in how research is addressing the climate and ecological crises - after a decade of scrutinising European science policy. And another ten years in the daily press covering the media, Eastern Europe and then justice. A year of radio correspondence in Japan in the middle of it all.

Nik Haidar is the founder of business growth consultancy Quatre23 Consulting. He has successful experience of helping technology companies from all sectors – cybersecurity, fintech, data management, medtech – expand into new markets. He has launched award-winning products in the UK, managed teams across Europe.

Stéphanie Hochet is a French writer. She studied the Elizabethan theatre at La Sorbonne. She published several novels, including Un roman anglais inspired by Virginia Woolf, and essays. She taught at a British University and is now teaching at Sciences Po. She recently published her last novel Armures at Rivages.